RE: MUR 7492
Ben McAdams

Dear Mr. Wilson:

The Federal Election Commission received a complaint that indicates that your client, Ben McAdams, may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"). A copy of the complaint is enclosed. We have numbered this matter MUR 7492. Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

The complaint was not sent to your client earlier due to an administrative oversight. We are in receipt, however, of your correspondence, dated October 17, 2018, which is styled as a response to the complaint on behalf of Mr. McAdams. Thus, unless you inform us otherwise, we will accept the response as notice of the complaint and continue processing the matter in the ordinary course.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30109 (a)(4)(B) and § 30109(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public. For our records, please have your client complete the enclosed designation of counsel form and return it to the Commission. Please be advised that, although the Commission cannot disclose information regarding an investigation to the public, it may share information on a confidential basis with other law enforcement agencies.¹

Please note that you and your client have a legal obligation to preserve all documents, records, and materials relating to the subject matter of the complaint until such time as you are notified that the Commission has closed its file in this matter. See 18 U.S.C. § 1519.

Any correspondence sent to the Commission, such as a response, must be addressed to one of the following (note, if submitting via email this Office will provide an electronic receipt by email):
